Daily Quote...

"Democrats have shown an unusual unanimity in opposing Republican-drafted legislation this year, putting increasing pressure on House Republican leaders to hold their 230-member caucus together. At the same time, Bush's low job-approval rating -- 42 percent in an Associated Press-Ipsos poll taken Dec. 5-7 --and the indictment of former House Majority Leader Tom DeLay have made loyalty to the [Republican] party less politically attractive."
